Definitely not another book about cutting coupons!

Not to worry--this book is not another book about color-coding your closet or 101 uses for baking soda. This book is for the millions of women who experience daily the balancing act between family, careers, and everyday life, while living in "turbo-mode" with no time or money to spare.

Turbo-Mom's Guide to Saving Money Without Wasting Time gives you:

- A concise go-to resource—written in a light and humorous tone. Saving money and time can be easy and fun!
- Well-researched straightforward advice and guidance with the "big stuff" like insurance, taxes, and investments direct from the financial professionals without putting you to sleep.
- Quick and easy ways to save on the everyday decisions, like grocery shopping, home repair and improvements, and looking your best without spending your retirement savings or kids' college fund.
- An easy to follow Q&A format with lots of Kid-tivities, sidebars, real life examples, worksheets, as well as online resources you need to make saving time and money a snap.

Read What Other Moms are Saying:

"Turbo-Mom is a must read - written in clear, simple language to help busy moms save time in making smart, cost-saving decisions without spending hours reading tedious, expensive books." - Sherry C., mom of 1 and nurse.

"As a mom of two kids under age five, I don't have a lot of time to waste. As a new business owner, now I have even less. And in this economy, nobody can afford to spend too much for things. Kristin's book helps to make sense of the big picture necessities as well as offering tips for simplifying everyday issues. The Turbo-Mom's guide has done all the research for me, put it all together in an easy-to-read package, and now I can figure out which choices work the best for my family. As I said, I don't have a lot of extra time...and I'd rather be dancing with my kids than researching cell phone plans!" - Gena Orne, mom of 2 and owner of Polkadoodles, Inc., Brewster, NY.

"This book helped me get organized! Now saving money is second nature, not a time consuming chore." Katie U., mom of 2, football mom and charity volunteer.
